

DAMON KINGSHOTT Photography

Damon is a local freelance photographer, and has been capturing images for the past 11 years. Primarily focusing on speedway and motorsport, for the past few years he's been shooting junior and senior basketball.

Now you can purchase images very simply through his website. Utilising the Paypal payment method, used by eBay and a large number of reputable online shopping sites, you can use credit card or bank direct deposit to purchase images. Even without signing up for a Paypal account as such.

Recently Damon attended the 2010 J. Boag & Son NWBU Finals Series held at the Devonport Stadium. All shots taken are available for purchase in a number of different sizes and formats.

Navigate to the website www.damonkingshott.com and jump into the Photography section to check out the images. If you would like Damon to attend your sporting event then give him a call to arrange.
